ARIZONA NEWS OF INTEREST

Miss Marie McDermitt, having received a letter over which she shed tears, committed suicide by taking strichnine tablets at the Shannon home in Metcalfe last week. She was from Ontario, Canada.

In Tucson, Judge S. W. Purcell fell and dislocated his shoulder.

The United Verde extension property at Jerome has shut down temporarily on account of the death of General Manager J. J. Fisher, says the Jerome News. The property is being kept unwatered and will probably start up again in the near future.

W. S. Adams of the Jerome News was a Prescott visitor this week. He is recovering from a surgical operation.

Territorial Secretary George U. Young is being mentioned as the Republican candidate for governor of Arizona.

At 4 a. m. in Jerome last Thursday morning, Officer John Hudgens, of Jerome, shot and instantly killed a Mexican named Ubio, after the Mexican had fired upon him. The amount of the affair shows it to have been a premeditated attempt to murder the officer and he was armed with a shotgun loaded with buckshot, in the anticipation of the event.

Mr. Tamplin has ordered a motor truck to haul supplies for the Yerpa mining camp, in Creek Canyon, and the truck will commence to travel between that camp and Prescott as soon as the territorial highway is finished over the Senator divide.

Four hundred and sixty dollars worth of the $600 worth of stamps recently taken when the postoffice at Parker was burglarized, have been found covered up under gunny sacks in an old car.

Near Jerome, Chief of Police Hawkins of that city, accidentally stepped into an old shaft and received injuries which will lay him up for a week or two.

John Cason, aged 50 years, a native of Illinois, died at Mayer of general Manager J. J. Fisher, he leaves a brother of Goodwin, Nebraska, and a sister at Acme, South Dakota.

On the line of the Santa Fe, near Ash Fork, last Sunday afternoon, E. E. Smith, locomotive fireman, was instantly killed. He left the cab to walk along the running board of the engine to look at the machinery and the next moment his remains were found on the grade, his head having evidently come in contact with one of the driving wheels.

While drinking a cup of coffee in a restaurant in Tucson Monday last, Miguel Escalante died.

John Hayes, a San Francisco fireman with a record of falling from high buildings into safety nets, fell three feet from a fence, broke his skull and may die.

Generous rains have prevailed in Prescott and vicinity during the past week.

PROMINENT ESTANCIA FARMER IS DEAD

William C. Gunter, a Highly Respected Citizen Passes Away After Protracted Illness; Was Devoted Christian.

Estancia, N. M., Sept. 22.—William C. Gunter, one of the most prominent and highly respected farmers of this section, died Wednesday night of cancer of the stomach at his home near this city. Mr. Gunter had been suffering for some time, and some weeks ago visited a specialist in Albuquerque, who held out little hope for his recovery. He had been in his usual spirits up till late Sunday evening, when he became worse, continuing to fail until death relieved him.

He leaves a wife and four children, John B., Wm. C., Thomas, and Mrs.

THE DRINKING CUP IN MISSOURI.

Oklahoma City is to be putting off glasses of beer being specified—Some items.

The drinking cup is no the bank; the terms have got to go.

Missouri has responded to the call, as 200 more know.

The glass the bartender for soda grains and spuds across the bar.

Must be hard coated and sterilized like soda glasses are.

Then it's good-bye, gorm. You needn't wait and squirm. The bus has got you by the neck, you devilish young worm.

The man who wants a "snifter" now must wait until his glass is scraped and planed and acid-washed—the last it has to pass.

It doesn't matter if you're dry and in a hurry—mix.

The bartender has his orders just that glass isn't got to us.

Then it's stand and wait.

No mixer if you're fat. You've got to have your health preserved in that big state?

The microbes and bacilli had are on the rim, you bet. They may to find another home, and other victims get.

When a paper cup is breached by someone it will be great, but the price of peace will go up to that big store.

Tell them, be heck!

Missouri still up deck. Will grab the bottle in their hand and shake out of the neck.
